12th Annual TATAS for TOYS Returns to Dante's

[PORTLAND, OREGON] Feast your eyes, fill your glass, and open your heart, December 21 when the 12th Annual TATAS for TOYS returns to Dante's with the goal of gifting $30,000 worth of toys for the kiddos at Doernbecher Children's Hospital.

Prepare yourself for the party of the year, filled with holiday cheer & rear, when the Rose Clty's finest North Pole Dancers join some of the NW's greatest variety acts for an unforgettable evening of entertainment, hosted by comedian Aaron Ross & pop-singer Tox!c.

In 11 years, TATAS for TOYS has brought $88,000 worth of toys to Doernbecher, and is now exclusively partnered with Mudpuddles Toys to bring their high-quality gifts to these wonderful children, in their time of need. All donations are tax deductible thanks to the underwriting of We Do Better Relief.

Wednesday, December 21, 8pm at Dante's (350 W. Burnside) $20.
